Urgency: almost all the time, has been wasted now, and you are going to be under increasing demands to produce perfect solutions instantly. Duperusion: The LIVEOAK staff is a military staff. I suggested forming it. I asked the British and French governments to contribute a few officers aprece in order that I might not be totally unprepared when they should dump this business in my lap. No operation well be ducted or executed until the three governments authorge me specifically to direct its execution I do not propose to debate refer any questions thereon to the three time we have been promised and must work.
